MAYOR'S MESSAGE

During the Cohuna Unlocked weekend we launched our Keys to Cohuna challenge! The challenge was inspired by last year's visit from Triple J's Veronica and Lewis when they went on a mission to win the Keys to Cohuna. The challenge was very popular over the school holidays with many families already receiving their key to Cohuna which unlocks great discounts within the town! If you haven't done the challenge yet you can drop into the Gateway to Gannawarra centre anytime and collect your challenge brochure. The challenge is a great weekend activity!

'All My Love' held in Murrabit on Friday night was a sell out with attendees enjoying a campfire stew and bush music and poetry before the show. Congratulations to community organisers for putting on a wonderful event.

Last week we welcomed our newest citizen Khuma Thapa (pictured) at a citizenship ceremony in Kerang. Khuma is currently living in Cohuna with her family and was born in Nepal. Congratulations Khuma!
