

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

This Sunday is ANZAC Day – a day that enables us to reflect on the sacrifices that past servicemen and women have made to ensure the life we live today. Commemorations will be held throughout the Gannawarra, and with services not held last year due to the COVID-19 pandemic, I encourage all residents to attend their local service.

Kind regards,
Mayor Charlie Gillingham

CIRCUS FUN COMING TO KERANG

Award winning, internationally renowned physical comedian Daniel Oldaker and variety star Rani Huszar are bringing their Acts of Absurdity tour to Kerang next week.

A free After School Street Activation will occur in Victoria Square, Kerang on Friday, 30 April at 4.30pm, with families to be entertained with masterful magic, chaotic clowning, preposterous physical feats, musical mayhem and hilarious hi-jinks.

The excitement will continue on Saturday, 1 May with the Acts of Absurdity show, occurring at the Kerang Memorial Hall from 6pm.

Tickets are $10 for individuals and $20 for families, which includes two adults and two children 15 years and under. Children aged six years and under may enter for free.

Bookings are essential, which can be done online at www.trybooking.com/BPZWK or by visiting Council's Customer Service Centre's at Cohuna and Kerang.

RHYME TIME, STORY TIME PROGRAMS RESUME

Gannawarra Library Service's in-person Rhyme Time and Story Time sessions have resumed. Story Time sessions, which foster a love of books and reading for three-year-old and four-year-old kindergarten children, will occur from 10.30am Tuesdays at the Cohuna Library and 10.30am Thursdays at Kerang's Sir John Gorton Library during school terms.

The Rhyme Time program, which assists in developing early language, literacy and numeracy skills for children under three years of age, will occur at 10.30am Wednesdays at the Sir John Gorton Library between 21 April and 26 May.

Those attending will be required to adhere to the various COVIDsafe measures in place. These include providing contact details upon arrival and socially distancing.
