

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

Council acknowledges the proposed realignment of VNI West, which will set up Northern Victoria as the nation's largest renewable energy zone and secure the Gannawarra's economic sustainability.

Council is committed to helping landowners located within VNI West's areas of interest, including providing information and coordinating meetings with the Australian Energy Market Operator to discuss issues around timing of works and appropriate compensation.

Kind regards,

Mayor Charlie Gillingham

WARM WINTER READ

Adult readers can be in the running to win some great prizes by participating in the Gannawarra Library Service's Warm Winter Read program.

Supported by Public Libraries Victoria, the program encourages readers to track the number of days they read between now and 31 August.

To register, visit <https://plv.beanstack.org> to create a Beanstack account or call into your local Gannawarra Library Service branch.

FLOOD DEBRIS DISPOSAL

Residents needing to dispose of materials damaged by the October-December 2022 floods can continue to do so for free at Council's transfer stations until 30 June 2023. For details regarding opening hours and transfer station locations, please visit www.gsc.vic.gov.au/waste

KERANG CBD

REDEVELOPMENT – STAGE 3

Work associated with Stage 3 of the Kerang CBD redevelopment is continuing, with businesses benefiting from the raising of the footpath along the eastern side of Victoria Street between Scoresby Street and Victoria Square.

Motorists are advised that car parking along Victoria Street is reduced due to these works, but businesses are still open.

For more information regarding the Kerang CBD Redevelopment, please visit www.gsc.vic.gov.au/KerangCBD
