

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

I would like to commend community members for their continued strength and resilience during the recent lockdown and look forward to the chance to open our services again in the near future. In the meantime, I would like to encourage residents to have their say on the Council's Draft Financial Plan. This document aims to ensure the long-term financial sustainability of the Council and is open for submissions until Friday, 24 September. To view this document, please visit

LIBRARY CLICK & COLLECT

Gannawarra Library Service's popular "click and collect" program, which is available during the current lockdown period, enables members to access to a large selection of books, magazines, audiobooks, and DVDs.

Residents wanting to access this service can phone either Kerang's Sir John Gorton Library or the Cohuna, Leitchville, and Quambatook branches to request to borrow a selection of items. Alternatively, patrons can place their requests via the Libraries Victoria app or through the online catalogue.

For more information about the Gannawarra Library Service and to access its online catalogue, please visit www.gsc.vic.gov.au/libraries.

CREATIVE STRATEGY CONSULTATION

Residents are encouraged to have their say on the Draft Creative Gannawarra Strategy 2021-2025 and the Draft Public Art Policy, with submissions accepted until 5pm Tuesday, 14 September. To view both documents and to provide feedback, please visit www.gsc.vic.gov.au/creativestrategy. Feedback will also be accepted in writing via email to arts@gsc.vic.gov.au and by post to PO Box 287, Kerang VIC 3579.
